Data Release Information Sheet

Data Summary

Dataset name: Development Assistance for Health Database 1990-2026, September 2026

Date of release: September 24, 2026

Summary:

This version of the Development Assistance for Health (DAH) Database includes estimates for 1990-2025, which are based on project databases, financial statements, annual reports, IRS 990s, and correspondence with agencies. The DAH Database enables comprehensive analysis of trends in international disbursements of grants and loans for health projects in low- and middle-income countries from key agencies. The data is disaggregated by source of funds, channel of funding, country and geographic region, health focus areas, and program areas. The data for 2024 and 2025 is a mix of preliminary and final estimates.

To better understand the data and how to use it, please refer to the IHME DAH Database 2026 User Guide.
